

WORK SHEET-2

GRADE: 4

EVALUATION-1, 2019-20

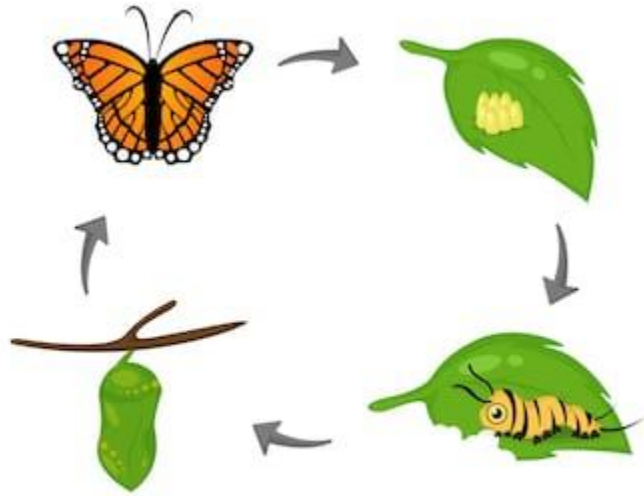

SUBJECT: SCIENCE

Block 6-More about insects, Block6- Life cycle of animals

I.Fill in the blanks

1. Fleas are found on _____.
2. Silver fish eat _____ and paste used to bind books.
3. An ant family is called an _____.
4. A larvae ant spins a cocoon around itself which is called _____.
5. The transformation of a caterpillar into a butterfly is called _____.
6. The young one of a frog _____.
7. Young animal in the very early stages of development before birth is called _____.
8. A protective case spun by larva is known as _____.
9. _____ ant lays eggs.
10. Sweet liquid inside flowers is _____.
11. A baby bird is called a _____.
12. The third stage of bird is _____.
13. Caterpillars eat _____.
14. The baby of an elephant is called _____.
15. A young animal in the very early stages of development before birth _____.

II. Label and explain the stages shutterstock.com • 1206873409

III. Identify the animal and comment on it

1

2.

3.

IV. Answer the following questions in three or four sentences each.

1. Draw the life cycle of an ant.

2. How an ant hill can be compared to our home?

3. Farmers spray insecticides to kill insects like moth which damage crops. How this can be harmful to us?

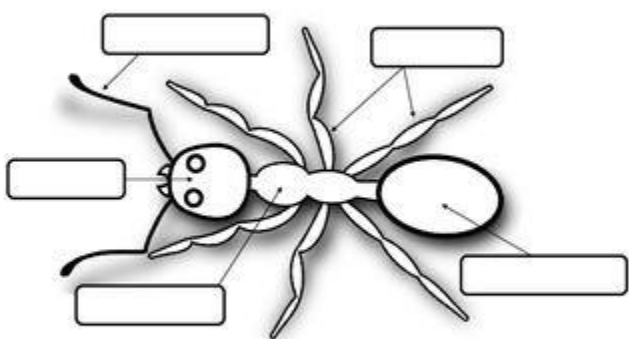

4. Caterpillars have many body parts. Are caterpillars insects? Justify your answer.

5. Why is the process of transformation of a tadpole into a frog called metamorphosis?

6. Do you think butterflies are similar to frogs or birds in the way they raise their young ones?

7.

Name: _____ Parts of an Ant

head thorax abdomen antennae legs